Port School for Young Parents (2 sessions) - Meerilinga Parenting Service
Moorditj Yorga TBC, Meerilinga Parenting Service
Melville Libraries Better Beginnings Grant Program TBC , Meerilinga Parenting Service
Meerilinga Early Learning Program, Hilton Site , Meerilinga Parenting Service

Chaos to Cooperation

For mums, dads and carers of children 0-18 (2 hours).

This workshop is a powerful reminder of the importance of connection between parents and their children. Connection supports children to thrive, and this workshop offers practical strategies to build cooperation and emotional resilience into everyday family life. The session will introduce important tools from the Hand in Hand Parenting approach to support children's emotional wellbeing and bring more ease into the family dynamic. It also highlights the importance of parent support and self-care, offering a simple structure that helps parents process the stresses of parenting so they can return to their children with greater patience, confidence and warmth.

Circle of Security Parenting

For parents and carers of children birth to 18 years (8 weeks)

Circle of Security Parenting focuses on the child/parent relationship and how to create a secure attachment. Our trained Facilitators work with parents and carers to help them understand their child's emotional world by learning to read their emotional needs; support their child's ability to successfully manage emotions; enhance the development of their child's self-esteem.

Dads Tuning Into Kids - online

For dads and father-figures of children aged 0-18 (7 weeks)

This workshop supports fathers to build practical skills for recognising, understanding and responding to their child's feelings. The program focuses on emotion coaching - helping children learn to understand and manage their emotions while strengthening the parent - child relationship.

Diverse Women's Friendship Group

For women from all backgrounds and all ages (6 weeks)

This diverse group of women come together to enjoy friendship and learn new skills. Relevant topics are covered, for example, women's health, parenting, financial counselling, self-care and wellbeing. Free morning tea and creche.

Hand in Hand - online

For all mums, dads and carers of 0-18 year olds (6 weeks)

The workshop focuses on understanding children's emotions and behaviour, and translating key ideas from attachment and relationship science into simple, practical actions that parents can use in everyday life. Parents learn ways to stay connected with their child while also setting clear, caring limits.

In This Together – Support and Connection for Foster and Kinship Carers

For foster and kinship carers of children from birth to 18 (5 fortnightly sessions)

Carers of vulnerable children have a big job, often navigating challenging behaviours, intense emotions, and a high daily workload. This group offers a safe and supportive space to connect with other carers, share experiences, and relieve stress. Participants can exchange practical strategies, celebrate successes, and receive encouragement from people who truly understand the unique challenges of fostering or kinship care. Whether you're seeking peer support, a listening ear, or ideas to manage everyday challenges, this group is a welcoming community where you are not alone.

Let's Talk Parenting at My Time

For young adults, parents and grandmothers (3 weeks)

Join us for a gentle and culturally safe threeweek yarn with our Aboriginal women's group, where young adults, mums and grandmothers can come together to share stories, explore parenting challenges, and support one another. Guided by an experienced facilitator, each session will be shaped by the group, with women choosing the topics that matter most to them. The yarning will be relaxed and grounded in connection, creating a welcoming space for wisdom, laughter, and learning across

My Time Aboriginal Women's Group

For young adults, parents and grandmothers (8 weeks)
This intergenerational group yarn about experiences and family connection over food and friendships. Free lunch provided and creche available. Registration essential.

Parenting Tweens and Teens

For parents of tweens and teens aged 10 to 18 years (6 weeks)

This workshop aims to empower parents to build positive, nurturing relationships with their tween / teen children, fostering better communication and understanding, and ultimately promoting positive adolescent development. This program is created by Australian Childhood Foundation and is part of the Bringing Up Great and Kids series, offering targeted support for parents/carers of adolescents.

WORKSHOP MORE INFORMATION

Play and Learn: Setting Loving Limits

For parents of children aged 1 to 5 years old (2 hours)

This session involves a relaxed chat designed to help parents understand how to set loving, effective boundaries while staying connected to their child. We'll discuss Hand in Hand tools for setting limits - why children sometimes push against them, how to hold a limit calmly, and how connection can reduce challenging behaviour. Sensory play will be available for parents and children offering realtime examples of how playful, attuned interactions can support regulation and cooperation. This session aims to leave parents feeling more confident, supported, and equipped with practical tools they can use at home.

Preparing for Daycare

For parents and carers of children starting daycare or early learning (1 hour, online)

This workshop helps families navigate the emotional and practical sides of starting daycare. Join us in a supportive, judgement-free space to share questions, discuss concerns, and learn strategies that help both children and parents enjoy the daycare experience from the very beginning.

Preparing siblings for a new Baby
